Prayer Invitation

Hello LCS Community,

Please feel free to join me in prayer this week for the following:

- Future direction for LCS and the Society
- Wisdom/salvation for our leaders
- Guidance and wisdom for the LCS staff (current and future)
- Blessing and wisdom for LCS families (current and future)
- Wisdom and faith to reach out to our community and beyond with the gospel and acts of service in Jesus' name
- Thanksgiving to God for his goodness to us

If you can make it to the school from 7-8pm (Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday), then join me in the Learning Commons. If not, please pray from home and let me know that you were joining us.

God bless you,
