Library Books & Birthdays

On your child's birthday we are encouraging you to donate a book in honor of your child to the library.

The child's name will be placed in the book and they will receive recognition for their donation.

This will not only increase the circulation in the library, but hopefully encourage your child to read more.