

LCS Memo

Oct. 23, 2019

To know, love and obey Jesus Christ.

Annual General Society Meeting

Nov. 28th is the Society AGM beginning at 7:00 pm. The evening will involve presentation of the audited statements.

Everyone is welcome to attend but only members are eligible to vote.

Poinsettias

The student council will once again be selling poinsettias in support of our sponsor child and events around the school. Forms will be sent home Monday so you can compile your list. All orders must be done through school cash on-line. The campaign begins Friday, Nov. 1.

Learning Commons Poster

In conjunction with the Living Faith Book Fair happening on Nov. 21st, the learning commons is holding a poster contest. Students are welcome to create a poster promoting the book fair by using any kinds of writing materials, pens, markers, etc. or a computer generated design.

All submissions need to be handed into Mrs. Calvin by Oct., 31st.

The deadline for purchasing hot lunch is Monday, Oct. 28th. Please note the original date for Quiznos was entered incorrectly and should have been Dec. 5th. Please plan accordingly if you ordered before today.

Middle school parents, have you checked in power school lately to see how your child is doing?
